

Harry F. Bleakley III

March 23, 1959 - March 13, 2023

Harry F. Bleakley III, of Baltimore, MD, passed away on March 13, 2023, at the age of 63. He was born March 23, 1959, to Elsa and Harry F. Bleakley Jr. Harry is survived by his sister's Lynda A. Dubbs, Sherry B. Hoffen and Kimberly R. Bleakley. Also, Mark Hess whom he loved as a brother.

After graduating from Loch Raven High School in 1979, Harry moved to Atlanta, Georgia to start a catering business with his sister Lynda. After three years, he moved back to Baltimore, MD and started working for Mercedes's Benz.

Harry retired from Mercedes's Benz in October 2013 after 28 years, working as an expeditor for the company.

Harry had the best sense of humor, and his laugh was infectious to everyone around him. He loved to play practical jokes on people and had a true ability to tell stories.

He loved riding motorcycles, rebuilding clocks, and was very artistic. Using pen and pencils, he would regularly create really talented satiric drawings commemorating birthdays, holidays, and special events.

No memorial service has been set at this time.

In lieu of flowers, his wish was for all donations to be made in his memory to St. Jude's for Children, and or the SPCA.
