“ Lisa and I were neighbors and friends with Joan and Frank for more than 30 years. We always loved having neighborhood parties on Kirwin Court and always loved when they joined us - Frank sharing story after story and she corroborating or fine tuning a detail when needed. One of our fondest memories is camping with them at Gettysburg several years before he passed. Joan missed him so greatly. We continued to visit, bring flowers and in more recent years bring simple meals that were easy for Joan to reheat and enjoy, and keep her strength up. She is already and will continue to be missed by those of us in the neighborhood who have known her for so long
