

Joseph J. Taylor

June 20, 1936 - October 24, 2023

Joseph J. Taylor, 87 was born June 20, 1936 and passed on October 24, 2023.

Joseph is survived by his wife M. Patricia (Pat) Taylor, married 64 years, and their children, Karen Starks and her husband L. Ray Starks, Michael and his wife Jean, Janet Grabus and her husband Rob, and David and his wife Jen. Joseph was blessed with 10 grandchildren and 9 great grandchildren.

Joseph, along with his twin brother Will, was the youngest of 9 children born to Richard and Elizabeth Taylor. His siblings were Catherine Taylor, Richard Taylor, Elizabeth Vogtman, Mary Taylor, Lawrence Taylor, Veronica Taylor, Teresa deLuca and twin brother William Taylor. Joseph was a life long resident of Baltimore. He was a graduate of Baltimore Polytechnic High School (1955). He was drafted into the United States Army in 1959 where he was based at Ft. Dix, NJ, and was stationed in Okinawa Japan. Joe was honorably discharged in 1961. Joseph was employed at the Ellicott Machine Corporation in Baltimore, where he worked for 42 years as a machinist.

Joe was a very humble man-he dedicated himself to all things family, to Pat, his kids, and all his extended family of brothers, sisters, their families and his in-laws. His life was centered around them. He didn't have much time for sports or hobbies, unless they involved his children. He found his joy in his time with family. Joseph died peacefully on October 24, 2023 at his home in Perry Hall, MD surrounded by his family.
