“ I have some really good memories of my Great Grandmom. I remember Great Grandmom making her homemade chocolate silk pie and pumpkin pie for thanksgiving each year. I remember telling Great Grandmom that I didn't want any presents for my birthday that all I ever wanted was her chocolate silk pie. I remember going to her house, when she lived with my Great Aunt Karen and Great Uncle Walt, and hearing how noisy the birds in their bird room were. I remember how uplifting her laugh was and how she could always make everyone else laugh and smile. I loved going to see her when we had family get togethers and being able to give her hugs and kisses. I remember telling Elliot and Cameron (my two oldest sons) that we were going to see their Great Great Grandmom when we would go to their Great Grandmom and Great Grandpop's house for the time when she lived with them. I'm glad that she got to meet her newest Great Great Grandson, Lucas, on video chat before she passed away. I will always cherish the good memories I have of my Great Grandmom.
