

Margaret "Maggie" Akonom

September 8, 1982 - August 27, 2025

Margaret "Maggie" Akonom was born on September 8, 1982, in Baltimore, Maryland. GOD in is infinite love and wisdom decided to call her home on Wednesday, August 27, 2025, after a short illness.

At an early age, Margaret attended Kennedy Krieger Institute, The Claremont School, and Maryland School for the Blind. In 2004, Margaret entered The Chimes Residential and Day Programs. While at Chimes, Margaret lived a meaningful and vibrant life. She was a part of the Intervals Day Program, where she participated in activities, went on outings, and enjoyed spending time with her friends. After 20 years of attending the Intervals Day Program, Margaret retired in 2024.

Margaret loved relaxing at home and listening to music while sitting in her recliner chair. Her favorite pastime was singing with her staff and playing sensory instruments. She enjoyed doing arts and crafts with her housemates.

Margaret also enjoyed getting massages from her massage therapist.

Margaret absolutely loved her staff and she accepted them as her family.

Margaret leaves a host of staff and friends from The Chimes to cherish her memory.
