Mary made friends with everyone. She was so easy to get along with. My husband and I met Mary in 2013 at a Senior club .She and Joe hit it off right away. She loved Joe's joking ways. I loved her faith in our Lord and Savior. We stayed in touch with each other after Joe and I moved in 2019. She loved her Ravens and Orioles, and her many ,many friends. But above all she loved God. And I loved Mary . Rest in Peace my friend. Barbara

I never met Mary Katherine but we were FB friends because my aunt, Marie Fahey aka Sr Mary Conrad, RSM, was a dear friend of hers. I knew her through Marie's reminiscences and ,when Marie became ill, we began our correspondence, first concerning Marie and later as friends. My life was better for having known her even remotely. Thinking of stories Marie told me of their trips, I am happy that this last trip took her to heaven where she is reunited with her gang. I'll miss your FB posts, MC, and I will miss you.
