

Paul J. Wickless Jr.

December 9, 1952 - August 14, 2024

Paul Joseph Wickless was born on the 9th of December 1952 to the late Paul Joseph Wickless, Sr. and Mary Agnes Wickless (nee Murphy). Paul was their only child, but he had two half-siblings: the late Mary Louise Howell (nee Herring) and the late John Joseph Herring III. Sadly, his mother passed away when Paul was only four years old, and his father never remarried.

Paul grew up in the Linthicum Heights area of Anne Arundel County and attended public schools there. After school, he began working with his Dad as a house painter. After his father passed away in 1982, Paul eventually came to Baltimore City to live, work and eventually retire. There he made a life and many close friends.

He loved to watch old Westerns on TV, and John Wayne and Gunsmoke were his very favorites. He also enjoyed Country music, especially George Jones and what he called "tub-thumping" music - Bluegrass. He laughingly referred to himself as a "Bottom of the Hill Hillbilly".

Although married and divorced, Paul had no children.

He is survived by his nieces and nephews and their extended families; Anita Louise Boris (Edward), Gordon James Howell, Jr. (Dianne), Mark Edward Howell (Jennifer) and Julie Ann Sandford (Michael). He is also survived by his cousin, Mary "Cassie" Riley and her extended family in Washington State.

He will be very deeply missed by his dearest friends; the family he chose for himself: Joe and Bonnie Burr, Brian Rossco, Paul Kane, Matt Valentine, Melissa Townsend and his beloved Tuxedo cat, Patches.

Mass of Christian Burial will be held at Transfiguration Catholic Community Church, 775 West Hamburg Street, Baltimore MD 21230 at 10 AM on November 29th 2024. Private interment at Dulaney Valley Memorial Gardens.
