

Ronald Wayne Warner

February 13, 1952 - March 22, 2026

Ronald Wayne Warner, of Baltimore, Maryland, passed away on March 22, 2026, at the age of 74.

Ronald spent the majority of his career working in the dairy production industry, where he was known for his strong work ethic and dedication. Outside of his professional life, he was a passionate musician. An extremely talented bass player, Ron performed in several bands over the years, including Procreation, and had the memorable experience of opening for well-known rock acts such as Led Zeppelin.

Ron had a lifelong love of music, film, and television. He enjoyed collecting albums and DVDs and could often be found revisiting his favorite shows and movies, sharing that enthusiasm with those around him. His trivia knowledge was exceptional.

Ron is survived by his beloved son, Justin; his brothers, David and Kirk; his sister-in-law Laura; and his nieces and nephew, Rachel, Sarah and Kyle.

Ronnie loved spending time with his son, Justin, especially going to the movies together. He will be remembered for his love for his family and the joy he found in the simple pleasures of life. He will be deeply missed by his family and all who knew him.
