“ *This wonderful lady has always been so cheerful and uplifting . She welcomed me into her family right away as if she had known me forever. She prayed everyday for one of my family members whom has had serious health issues. She enjoyed every day no matter how she felt . Even in her last days she would get up ..get showered..eat at the kitchen table and get her hair done as usual and be her smiling self the whole time. Never once did she complain. Her faith carried her. She was a true delight ! I along with all who knew her will miss her
So so much . She can't hold our hands or kiss our faces but Her memories and her love for others will keep her alive in all our hearts
Many hugs ..Joan*

“ My godmother, Theresa, was a great inspiration to me. Even though she lost her own mother at the age of nine, she became an admired matriarch for her own family.

Thru the years, Theresa was always there supporting and encouraging her 5 brothers an 2 surviving sisters, visiting them when they were sick and dancing at their children’s weddings.

Her brother, my Dad, Bernie Idzi, died in 1996; but dear Theresa continued to keep in touch with me, especially one glorious afternoon, showing a bunch of us how to make perfect Polish chrusciki cookies in 2015. She will be missed.

“ Yanli and Keith Herold connected to Theresa only in recent years through our daughter Maria and her husband Matt Verderamo, Theresa's grandson. Theresa was, in my opinion, a real force of nature. We had good conversations every time we met her. I wish I could attribute that to our side but in fact it was Theresa who carried the weight of those interactions. I always felt a clarity and warmth in talking with her. We liked her alot. Our condolences to the family. We will raise a toast tonight to Teresa's memory.

“ Having known Mrs. Theresa all my life , the best memories are of her in the Kitchen baking and making home made noodles. What great cookies she would make and twisting and stretching her noodles. When I would see her later in life she always was excited and say LENNY TURNER with a big welcoming smile. What a great long life she has lived. God bless you Mrs Verdoramo.
